The Three Rivers Heritage Trail is a 240-mile network of trails and riverfronts in southwestern Pennsylvania. It connects the region’s urban core to its rural and industrial history, offering a unique perspective on the cultural and natural heritage of the area.

What we do:
- Sustainable development
- Trail care and stewardship
- Events, education, and volunteer opportunities

Friends of the Riverfront is a local chapter of the Three Rivers Heritage Trail Council. Our mission is to promote the Three Rivers Heritage Trail and the Three Rivers Water Trail as meaningful and enjoyable places to experience the natural and cultural heritage of the region.

Trail Connections
- The Three Rivers Heritage Trail connects to many other trails and bike routes in the region, including the Great Allegheny Passage and the Allegheny River Trail.
- The Three Rivers Water Trail is a 140-mile waterway that connects the Ohio River to Lake Erie.
